Website Privacy Policy

This policy relates to the website maintained by Killeshal Precast Concrete Limited at <https://killeshal.com>

Introduction

We respect your right to privacy and we comply with our obligations under the Data Protection Acts 1988 and 2002 and the EU GDPR which came into force on 25 May 2018. The purpose of this Website Privacy Policy is to outline how we deal with any personal data you provide to us while visiting this website. If you are not happy with any aspect of this Website Privacy Policy you should not use this website.

Continued use of this website, at killeshal.com will indicate that you understand and agree to this Privacy Policy in its entirety.

Any external links to other websites are clearly identifiable as such, and we are not responsible for the content or the privacy policies of such external websites.

Types of Data Collected

This website does not capture or retain any personal information from visitors. It will log a visitor's IP address and other data from your web browser. This may include the browser you are using, your device's operating system and the address of any website that referred you to this site. This is used to produce anonymous web statistics for use in planning the future offering of our services, including the operation of this website.

However, the website will record and process personally identifiable data if you provide this when using the site, for example, when completing a contact form and entering your contact details.

What we do with your data

Information collected by this website will be used only for analytics and planning purposes unless you have provided personal data and consented to its use. We use Personal Data you provide to us for the following purposes:

- To provide you with the goods or services you have ordered;
- To contact you if required in connection with an order or to respond to any communications you might send to us;
- To send you further information about goods or services that you buy from us

Disclosure of Information to Third Parties

Non-Personal Data may be provided to a third party, where such data is combined with similar information from other users of our website. For example, we might provide data on the number of unique visitors to our site, demographic breakdown of users of our website, or the activities of visitors on our website during their visit.

We currently use Google Analytics on this website for this kind of data collection and processing.

We will not disclose Personal Data to unless you have consented to this disclosure or unless the third party is required to complete your order. In such circumstances, the third party is also bound by similar data protection requirements. We may also disclose Personal Data if we are required to do so in order to comply with any applicable legal, regulatory, or other statutory requirement.

Cookies

This website uses “cookie” technology. A cookie is a small file stored by the browser on your computer at the request of our server.

Two types of cookies are use, persistent and session. Persistent cookies remain on your device until their set expiry date (or if you delete them before that date) and are sent back to this website by your browser identifying you as a returning visitor.

Cookies we use

Cookie	Lifetime/Expiry	Purpose
_gid [cookie]	End of browsing session	Google Universal Analytics cookie used to track which pages a user visits on the site.
_ga [cookie]	10 years	Google Universal Analytics cookie used to calculate visitor, session and campaign data for the sites analytics reports
gwcc	3 months	Google advertising cookie.
_gat	10 minutes	Google Universal Analytics cookie used to throttle the request rate - limiting the collection of data on high traffic sites.

You may decline to use our cookies or ask your browser to indicate when a cookie is being sent, and you can also delete cookies from your computer. Note that if you decline to use our cookies, this may affect the performance of this website.

Find out more about cookies here EU Internet Handbook and here All About Cookies.

Security

Your Personal Data is held on secure servers hosted by MyHost Internet Services. The nature of the Internet is such that we cannot guarantee or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us via the Internet. No data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. However, we do employ SSL (https) technology on our websites to provide a secure connection between your browser and the website and we will take all reasonable steps (including appropriate technical and organisational measures) to protect your Personal Data.

Your rights in relation to your data

As of 25 May 2018 you have enhanced rights with regard to how your personal data is acquired, processed and stored. Killeshal Precast Concrete Ltd is committed to fully honouring these rights. GDPR requires that data be:

- Processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- Collected for specific, explicit and legitimate purposes
- Adequate and relevant and limited to what is actually necessary
- Accurate and up-to-date
- Retained only for as long as is necessary
- Processed and maintained securely

Access to Information

As a Data Subject you have the right to confirmation as to whether we process your personal data and, where we do process your data, you may make a request at any time to access your data, as well as how we process it and why.

A formal request by a Data Subject for access to their personal data (a Subject Access Request) will be referred to the Data Protection Officer and will be then be processed as soon as possible. Requests should be addressed to the Data Protection Officer.
